Arlington high school selects new principal

Le Roy J. Knoepfel, former superintendent of schools, Greenville, Illinois, has accepted the position of Principal of Arlington Heights Township high school, according to Elmer F. Laurin, president of the local board of education. Mr. Knoepfel, who succeeds T. R. Erhorn, will assume his new duties July 1.

Mr. Knoepfel comes to Arlington Heights with 20 years of secondary school teaching behind him, 18 years of which have been spent in administrative work. Other principal or superintendent positions held by Mr. Knoepfel followed a long and careful screening of scores of applicants, many of them from some of the larger school systems of the state.

Final choices were invited to Arlington Heights for a series of personal interviews, and representatives of the board, in turn, personally visited Greenville, following the board's choice of Mr. Knoepfel as their candidate for the job.

Mr. Knoepfel was graduated from Bluffs high school, Bluffs, Ill., in 1923, and received his B. S. from Carthage College, Carthage, Ill., in 1927, and his M. A. from Iowa University, Iowa City, Iowa, in 1935. Presently he is working toward his Ph. D. with twelve hours of graduate work to his credit.

Upon graduation, Mr. Knoepfel became associated with the Hamilton high school, Hamilton, Illinois, for two years as teacher and coach, one year as principal, and 16 years as superintendent of schools. From Hamilton he went to Greenville as superintendent of both primary and high schools, and leaves with an outstanding record of achievement in all departments. In addition to his work as an educator, Mr. Knoepfel has been active in out-of-school work, both educational and civic. He has served as president of Hancock County Teachers' Assn., Hancock County School Masters' Club, Western Illinois School Masters' Club, Hamilton Kiwanis Club, Lt. Gov. Kiwanis District, third War Loan chairman, Kiwanis District committee chairman, member legislative commission, Illinois high school association, president Mississippi Valley Division, Illinois Education Association.

Loss of suit
may cost Heights
many thousands

Attorney Hugo J. Thal will explain to the Arlington Heights village board Monday evening the effects of the decision of the Master in Chancery, on the big sewer case which if not appealed will cost the tax payers of the village a great many thousands of dollars. Present bills against the village for court costs are nearly $10,000. Unless a settlement is made with the Sunwich corporation, owner of the big sewer bonds, a judgment of approximately $100,000 is possible.

If such a judgment is entered the municipality would be required to issue bonds extending over a term of years and levy additional taxes each year to pay the bonds and interest. The suit is largely based on the issuance of vouchers on other than the first instalment. Attorney Thal claims that he had received court approval of such action.

Arlington business men aid Poppy Day

Nearly a hundred Arlington Heights business men, in cooperation with Arlington Heights Post No. 981, Veterans of Foreign Wars, have made possible a page advertisement in this issue bringing Poppy Day to the attention of the public. Saturday, May 24, ladies of the Auxiliary will be selling poppies, the net returns from which will be utilized for rehabilitation work among the unfortunate ex-servicemen of the two wars.

These poppies were manufactured by the ex-servicemen in hospitals. They will be worn by the purchasers as a tribute to those who gave their lives for their country. The number of soldier dead was many times doubled by World War II. The multitude of dimes, quarters and halves that may be dropped into the poppy cans is the least that the living can do in memory of the several hundred local boys who have passed on.

The dollars will go to the aid of the living. Those who buy will be honoring the dead by helping the living.

Committee to check all plans for building

Means protection to neighbors and buyers of homes

Arlington Heights village board took the first step Monday night in a program for a more stringent control of future building. It was one of the platform planks of the successful candidates at the recent election. A committee of three will hereafter sit-in on all applications for building permits.

The mere fact that the size of the building and manner of construction does not violate any of the existing codes does not mean that the applicant will be given the green light.

The committee will frown upon the erection of homes of a class that is not in keeping with the existing homes of the area. The committee may even go so far as to require "completion bonds" of builders, or at least allow only proven builders to operate locally.

Appoint building committee

The appointment of the building committee was made by Mayor Goedke following the passage of an enacting ordinance. The present members, each to serve two years, are: Carl Teutch, architect, chairman; Milo Little and Paul Tague, building commissioner.

The appointment of such a committee was agreed upon by the present village board a month ago. The immediate need for such protection to home purchasers was stressed Monday night by Fred Gorder, a resident of Arlington Park, who appeared before the board and in no uncertain words gave his opinion of the building from whom he had purchased his home.

He put part of the blame for his troubles on lax building control over homes being built by Arlington by developers. He asked that the village refuse to grant "his" builder any more permits for homes.

He understood, he said, that this individual expects to secure additional lots under the foreclosure method and would attempt to build more homes. "I want to stop others from being suckers," stated Gorder.

More special police

Five additional special police were appointed by Mayor Goedke. They are Ray Henke, 202 S. Mitchell; Burkitt Davis, 105 E. Hawthorn; James E. Wood, 1106 Clarendon; Fred Tailion, 33 Vine and A. Oberman, 314 N. Highland.

Scarsdale residents will have three additional electric lights. The board approved the installation.

Herbert R. Jacobsen asked approval for the installation of improvement on a number of streets in Sherwood. The streets will be graded 66 ft. wide at once and six inches of crushed stone will be laid on a 20 ft. roadway. After the erection of homes and installation of services, the street will be completed and given a black top—an operation that will take a year. The approval of the village engineer will be secured by Mr. Jacobsen before work is started.

A resolution was passed appropriating $600 of state gas tax funds for the maintenance and operation of traffic lights on the Northwest Highway.

Stepping-off time is 9:30 a. m. and services will be held at Memorial Park at 9:45 a. m. All organizations and residents are invited to participate in the parade. The Veterans are asking the various groups to join in the parade from Recreation Park to Memorial Park. A complete program will be published in next week's Herald. For information contact Jos. Wisersky or S. Greshner, respective commanders of the Legion and VFW.

Tax collectors threaten to strike Wednesday

Cook County Tax Collectors are going on a strike next Wednesday. That is just what is going to happen unless County Treasurer Louis E. Nelson, backs down from his edict that all tax books now in the hands of local tax collectors must be returned to his office by May 28th. The Cook County Tax Collectors' association will meet as a committee of the whole in the treasurer's office on that date and will leave their tax books at home. A conference for that morning with Mr. Nelson has been promised by his office.

Democrats cooperate

Former Democratic county treasurers have cooperated with the country towns collectors in recent years by allowing them to collect right up to the penalty date. Nelson, a newly elected republican, saw fit to call in the books nearly a week before the penalty date.

This action, say the township collectors, works a hardship on the country towns taxpayers whose bills did not come out until nearly a month after the Chicago bills were in the mails. The penalty date extension to June 2 gives the city taxpayers nearly twice as long to pay their taxes as it does the taxpayers in the country towns.

The collectors also point out that if they close their offices nearly a week before the penalty date, it will put thousands of their patrons to the inconvenience and discomfort of going to the city to pay their bills during the last few days of the collection, and bucking the last minute jam at the county office.

Farmers six weeks behind

Farmers, who are already six weeks behind with their work, are not going to take kindly to having to go into the city to pay their tax bill when they feel they should be able to pay their taxes at home.

Those identified with the republican organizations in the country towns express the hope that the difference between the collectors' organization and the county treasurer can be amicably ironed out. The political repercussions of a feud between the two could be very serious to the G. O. P. as many of the township collectors are recognized republican leaders in their home townships.

To open south side ball park Sunday
at Arlington Heights

Arlington athletic association will unveil its south side athletic field at South Highland and Park avenue this Sunday morning at 10 a. m. with festivities including indoor baseball for seniors and juniors. Members of the organization have spent many hours grading and preparing the south side field in an effort to give Arlington Heights residents more opportunities for sports.

A call has been issued to all juniors interested in league ball to report at the field. A league will be formed if enough interest is shown.

The club is sponsoring a dance at the field house this Saturday night with Dick Everett's orchestra to furnish the music. Admission is 75 cents.

70 units, 15 bands
entered in contest

Officers of the Ninth District American Legion expect that the 1947 Youth Convention to be held at Palatine Sunday will be the largest and most successful in the history of the organization. The hosts, Palatine Post and the other Posts in the First Area, have gone all out to make the visit of the Chicagoand Posts to Palatine one that will be long remembered.

Palatine is an ideal location for such an affair and in the opinion of the district officers has given the most convenient location arrangements that have yet been made. The parade will form on the carnival grounds in an 18 acre tract south of the high school. There will be acres of parking space and special police officers to direct such parking.

The parade starting from the carnival grounds, is routed through the beautiful shaded streets, ending in the athletic field north of the high school, where the reviewing stand will be located. The "parade of champions," the judging and program will be held there.

Loudspeaker facilities and the great expanse of the athletic field will enable the vast assemblage of people to hear and see everything.

The speaker of the day will be Philip Maxwell of the Chicago Tribune.

Participants

The committee is very enthusiastic over the number of entries which include seventy groups, with 15 musical units. They are boys and girls in tune bands, and drum and bugle corps; colorful drill teams and R. O. T. C. units; artful baton twirlers; snappy marching groups from grade and high schools of Chicago and the suburbs; boy scouts, cub packs, sea scout ships, air scout squadrons, etc.; girl scouts, brownies, camp fire girls, girl brownies; school boy and girl safety patrols.

Also included will be junior auxiliary units, sons of the American Legion. Many of these groups have been practicing and drilling, hoping to be the champion in their class and winning one of the many coveted awards offered.

Parade orders

The parade will form at Wood and Oak streets at 1:30, stepping off at 2:30 sharp. The parade route from Wood and Oak streets will be west on Wood to Brockway, north on Brockway to Colfax, east on Colfax to Fremont; South on Fremont into high school field.

Vokac again selected to head summer play
in Arlington parks

The recreational program at the Arlington Heights field house and pool is being planned and will more or less follow the same pattern as it did last year with a broader and more specific effort upon age group and activities to be offered.

The recreational post will be handled by Mr. Vokac and will be assisted by Don Peters, who is a student in college studying for a degree in physical education.

This year, as last, the program must be based upon the intended and actual attendance at the park, and therefore it is necessary that a registration be made in order to plan activities for the various age groups. Questionnaires are to be issued in the schools and filled out either by the student or the parent of the student.

Boys and girls groups

As last year all competition will be divided into girls' and boys' groups with appropriate activities for each sex. The competition in each group will be restricted to age groups and these will be called midgets, 6-7-8; juniors, 9-10-11; intermediates, 12-13-14, and seniors, 15-16-17.

An introductory event for the summer program will be a field day in which all age groups will compete. For the smaller individuals, shorter races will be planned, with longer races for the older boys and girls.

The activities for the summer will include soft ball, basketball, soccer or kick ball, volleyball, croquet, shuffle board, horse shoes, free throw, ping pong.

In the field house a number of films and handicraft activities will be planned. The recreational hours planned so far will be from 9 a. m. to 12:00 p. m. with added plans for an evening program.

Divide week

The days planned for girls are Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Guest speaker

PHILIP MAXWELL

Philip Maxwell, the guest speaker at the Youth Convention Sunday at Palatine, is a member of the editorial department of The Chicago Tribune. He is director of the Tribune's annual Chicagoand Music Festival in Soldier's Field and conducts during the season two half-hour radio shows on WGN, both sponsored by The Tribune.

On "Citizens of Tomorrow," a transcribed program heard each Sunday noon, 12 o'clock, he takes the role of the "Principal of the Air." This entertainment is dedicated to the high school students of America.

On "Youth Looks Up," broadcast each Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, he plays the role of the visiting Sunday school superintendent.

More than a million and one half people have attended the festivals in Soldier's Field during the last seventeen years, and more than 250,000 boys and girls have participated in his two radio programs.

days, at which time they will have the use of all equipment. Boys' days will be Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, when they will have their competitive program in operation.

Along with the games and activities, plans are being made to arrange a handicraft class and a time set aside for little tots for story telling on the days when there is no handicraft activity.

Included in the program are provisions made for awards, what type of award is yet to be decided, hinging on availability of medals and ribbons.

The final summer award will be an impressive trophy to the girl and boy who have made the most points in competitive tournament during the summer program.

Chamber of Commerce
dinner meeting
Monday night

Members of Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce are going to enjoy a good dinner at the Town Pump Monday night and also hear a good speaker. Diners will have their choice of prime roast beef or fried chicken, southern style, and all the "fixings" that go with it. The speaker will be Dr. Geo. Truman Carl of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, who will give some inside information on what other chamber of commerce are doing and what the future holds forth for the average businessman.

In his letter of acceptance to Secretary Yosten, he writes there is ever need why the business man should be on his toes if he wants to be able to meet changing business conditions.

Yosten says that there are only ten tickets left and any business man who has not made a reservation should do so at once.

Scouts trek north to plant pine trees

by ARNOLD HATCH
Fourteen scouts and scouters of Northwest Suburban council left Friday, May 16, at 6:30 p. m., traveling north to take part in reforestation program at the recently purchased Funk Lake boy scout camp located west of Oshkosh, Wis.

A forester from Wisconsin department of conservation delivered 3,000 4 year old White, Norway and Jack Pines, also 500 shrubs which were planted on Saturday along the bank overlooking beautiful Funk Lake. One group of scouts went ahead digging holes, while the remaining workers set the trees, tamping them firmly. Even the "weather man" aided the program by providing rain all day which made it unnecessary to water the trees after planting.

The tree planting project wasn't all work, however, several deer being observed, also many kinds of birds, especially the beautiful Baltimore orioles. Flowers were few and far between because the growing season hasn't begun yet.

Caretaker Mrs. Joe Miller served excellent meals which added much to the pleasure of the trip, all agreeing that it was a lot of fun, especially sleeping out in the hay mow.

Among the scouts and scouters participating in this project were Stan Hunting, Wally DeBuhr, Otto Harz, Noel Wyson, Bill Forrest, Russell Smith, T. R. Smith, Geo. Edwards, Dick Von Kampen, Carlyle Roderick, Jack LeMay, Max Deethard, Joe Rickett and Dennis Church.

Protein Diet

Adequate protein that is essential to normal growth in children and continued vigor and longevity for adults can best be obtained by including meat in the diet each day, but by not crowding out milk and eggs.

Medical Research And You

by C. W. LUSSMAN of Sieburg Drug Co.

Popular articles on medical research usually affect us in one of two ways... either they make us apprehensive about our own health... or they deal with a drug or discovery which strikes us as being miraculous, but very remote from our own needs.

But the physician whose profession makes it necessary for him to keep abreast of medical research has the training and knowledge to evaluate new methods and medicines properly. He will be glad to relieve you of any apprehension you may have regarding your health. He can be relied upon to employ any new drug that will be effective in sickness.

The conscientious pharmacist too, keeps abreast of new drug discoveries.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 18, was:

"MORTALS AND IMMORTALS"
The Golden Text was:

"The earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God" (Rom. 8: 19).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible:

"For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that which I do I allow not; for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I... Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: ... So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin" (Rom. 7: 14, 15, 20-22, 25).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"All forms of error support the false conclusions that there is more than one Life; that material history is as real and living as spiritual history; that mortal error is as conclusively mental as immortal Truth; and that there are two separate, antagonistic entities and beings, two powers,—namely, Spirit and matter,—resulting in a third person (mortal man) who carries out the delusions of sin, sickness and death... Such theories are evidently erroneous. They can never stand the test of Science. Judging them by their fruits, they are corrupt. When will the ages understand the Ego, and realize only one God, one Mind or intelligence?" (p. 204).

Florence Zinzer and George Rossman wed

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Matthews Lutheran church, East Maine, at 7:30 p. m. Saturday evening, May 17, when Miss Florence Zinzer became the bride of Mr. George Rossman. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zinzer of Niles, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rossman, also of Niles. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Julius Toepele.

Baskets of flowers decorated the altar before which the vows were said. Kurt Rohde officiated at the organ.

Mr. Zinzer escorted the lovely bride to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a beautiful lace dress with a long train, her veil was of finger-tip length and trimmed with lace hearts and fell from a duchess cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible from which fell gardenias and lilies of the valley suspended on white ribbons.

The bride was attended by her sister Mildred as maid of honor, and by Mrs. Elinor Engels and Mrs. Dorothy Wolfgram as bridesmaids. Their gowns of net, were all made alike, with long, full skirts and in colors of blue, yellow and green, respectively. Each attendant carried a white Bible on which rested a single gardenia. In their hair they wore carnations dyed to match their gowns.

The groom was attended by his three brothers, Edgar, as best man, and Earle and Paul as ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents where 160 invited guests extended felicitations to the happy couple. A wedding supper was served buffet style at 11:30 p. m.

The bride's mother wore a rose print dress with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The mother of the groom chose blue for her costume, also with black accessories and she too wore a gardenia corsage.

The newlyweds received scores of beautiful and practical gifts, among which was a matched set of luggage from the fellow office employees of the Gottmann Canning Co. where the bride is employed.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Rossman are enjoying a two weeks wedding trip during which time they expect to visit Holland, Mich., Niagara Falls, points of interest in Canada and then return by way of the east coast. They will make their home in Prairie View.

Donald Bingham takes Nebraska girl as bride

The wedding of Miss Donna Elaine Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Lewis, of Sutherland, Nebraska, to Donald S. Bingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bingham, of Arlington Heights, took place at 2 p. m. Sunday, May 11, at the First Methodist church, in Sutherland, Nebraska.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hoewing, of the First Presbyterian church, before an altar banked with apple blossoms, white lilacs, and ferns lighted by tall white tapers. Miss Margaret Allyson and Miss Dorothy Baughman, both of Grand Junction, Colo., played the traditional wedding music. Harry Gene Stewart, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Glen Everett, sang, "Because."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Vernon Lewis, of Denver, Colo., was dressed in a white eyelet gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her veil of illusion fell from a white eyelet crown, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses centered on a Bible.

Miss Patricia Aron attended the bride as maid of honor and Mrs. Lloyd Flannigan served as bridesmaid. Miss Aron was dressed in a floor length gown of yellow eyelet, with a matching headpiece, and Mrs. Flannigan was dressed identically, but in blue. Both carried colonial bouquets. The tapers on the altar were lighted preceding the ceremony by Miss Marjorie Bierma and Mrs. D. G. Stewart. Douglas Bingham attended his brother as best man and Robert Hamil and Floyd Flannigan, fraternity brothers, were ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. H. M. Guffey and Mrs. H. B. Jones poured from a table centered with a bouquet of white snap dragons. Miss Bierma served the wedding cake and Mrs. H. G. Stewart presided over the guest book. Among the out of state guests at the wedding, were Mr.

and Mrs. Harold Bingham, and Douglas Bingham, of Arlington Heights, and several auto loads of college friends from Boulder, Colorado.

Later in the day the couple left for Colorado points for a short wedding trip. From there they will go to Arlington Heights where they will be honored at a reception May 25 at the home of the groom's parents. For travel the bride chose a pink linen suit with which she wore a mist blue shortie coat. Her accessories were white and her corsage was pink roses.

Mrs. Bingham has been attending the University of Colorado at Boulder, where she was a member of the Women's Athletic Ass'n and the Women's Club. Mr. Bingham also attended the U. of Colorado, where he was affiliated with the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He also served for three years in the U. S. Army. Air Corps, part of which time was spent as a pilot in the South Pacific. Mr. and Mrs. Bingham will

by BILL NORTH

Congratulations to the cast and crew of the Senior Play, "Spring Dance" by Phillip Barry. A brilliant success as rendered by members of the senior class of 1947 at Arlington Heights Township High school last Friday and Saturday.

Jo Ann Koester as Alex Benson gave a magnificent portrayal of a young college girl smitten with love for Sam Thacher, dashing played by Arthur Johnson. Same, however, is a cynic on love, mainly due to the influence of his bosom companion The Lippincott, brilliantly portrayed by Carl Teutsch.

Mady Platt, played with great wit and personality by Jo Gilman, Kate McKim, sensitively portrayed by Patricia Brock, Sally Prescott, hilariously and exquisitely characterized by Mari-Lou Richards, and Frances Fenn acted by Billie Trunkay with a delightful and riotous characterization to trap Sam into marrying Alex.

Dorcas Aid has mother and daughter dinner

Springtime potted plants provided the decorative theme for the tables at the annual mother's and daughter's dinner party of St. Peter's church, Arlington Heights last week. Songs by Miss Seltz and the Nagel sisters set the mood for Mrs. Upham of the Cook County Home Bureau, who spoke with sympathetic understanding on the need for cooperation between parents and children.

All members of a family should be aware of its problems, discuss them, and help to solve them. "Begin with the small things," says Mrs. Upham, "teaching them to assume greater responsibility as time goes on, so that they are able to meet life on their own when that time comes. A busy child doesn't have time to get into trouble."

Children baptized

Baptismal rites were held Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Karnatz, for their infant son, Henry Arthur. The christening was done by Reverend L. V. Stephan. Sponsors for Henry were Arthur L. Harting, Sr., Henry A. Karnatz, Mrs. Edward Karnatz, and Mrs. Urban Harting.

A supper was served for the immediate family following the ceremony.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hartmann was baptized at their home Monday evening by Reverend L. V. Stephan. The little girl has been named Lynn Rae and Miss Margaret Winheim, Mrs. Eleanor Hoggay, Mrs. June Hartmann, and Mrs. Lois Langhorst were sponsors for her.

Stephan. David Earl was born April 23 and has two sisters. His sponsors were Wm. L. Mueller, Wm. O. Mueller and Irwin H. Mueller.

Chicago and Northern Illinois ... Hands with Varied Skills and Vast Experience

THERE are two and a quarter million factory and office employees possessing more than 2600 different main classifications of skills in Chicago and Northern Illinois ... some of the most diversified and experienced men and women in the world.
More than 12,000 various industrial, transportation and service establishments in this area, utilizing the skills of this great labor force, produced and delivered ten billion dollars in products each year during the war.
All the important skills required for low cost manufacture and development of products are present in this area. Records of the United States Department of Labor confirm the great diversification found here. In just one group of a quarter million men and women are experienced tool and die makers, machinists, millwrights, bench assemblers, set-up men, inspectors, finishers, and cutters. Almost a half million workers in Chicago and Northern Illinois have a substantial amount of industrial experience. Here, also, are 150,000 people skilled in the operation of the far-reaching transportation facilities, finest in the world. It would be impossible for workers in a region dominated by one or only a limited number of industries to gain the broad experience found in craftsmen here.
Home of over a half million clerical and professional "white collar" employees, Chicago and Northern Illinois offers these people access to the greatest number of professional and trade schools and research facilities in the world. These schools help equip the employees with the scientific and economic background necessary to meet the problems of world-wide competition.
Employees in this area are exceptionally stable. Nearly 70 per cent of them were born in Chicago and Northern Illinois ... the largest percentage of native workers of any major industrial center. These employees are high in education, too, since the proportion of high school graduates is larger than in any other great industrial area. It is this tremendous force of educated, experienced and stable workers which has trebled this region's industrial output since 1939.
The good pattern of industrial relations has been developed by fifty years of experience at the conference table. Sound collective bargaining by experienced leaders has consistently reduced the amount of time lost from labor disputes. At present, the proportion of man-hours lost is substantially less than the ratio of the country as a whole.
The diversity and experience of employees in Chicago and Northern Illinois is another reason why this Company, with a long record of service in this area, has great confidence in its future.

Industries in this area have these outstanding advantages: Railroad Center of the United States • World Airport • Inland Waterways • Geographical Center of U. S. Population • Great Financial Center • The "Great Central Market" • Food Producing and Processing Center • Leader in Iron and Steel Manufacturing • Good Labor Relations Record • 2,500,000 Kilowatts of Power • Tremendous Coal Reserves • Good Government • Good Living Good Services for Tax Dollars • Send for free booklet containing useful information on these advantages.

ANSWER: It all depends. If you can afford the down payments and can meet the monthly payments without difficulty, it's a convenient way to buy. Our loan plan makes the purchase of an automobile or home equipment simple.

Illustration of hands performing various tasks: using a saw, a drill, a wrench, a screwdriver, and a hammer.

"OUR time is a very shadow that passeth away." So said Solomon. The Veterans of Foreign Wars recognizes this truth and dedicates its entire energies to make OUR TIME a time of Peace on Earth, Good Will toward men.

Silenced is mortal combat. And those who returned, now veterans, are solid citizens blazing their paths in this postwar world. But there ARE those who need help. So in this year of the 26th Annual Buddy Poppy sale, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States asks all Americans to join in reaffirming the V. F. W. pledge to "Honor the dead by helping the living." Never has that pledge had more significance. Never have the people of the United States been more aware of veterans' welfare. We shall dispel the lurking shadows which threaten those who were wounded mentally or physically, their widows and their orphans.

In 1946, more than 15 million Americans pinned Buddy Poppies on their spring dresses and suits. All collections were made by volunteer workers. Every sale was clearly earmarked for:

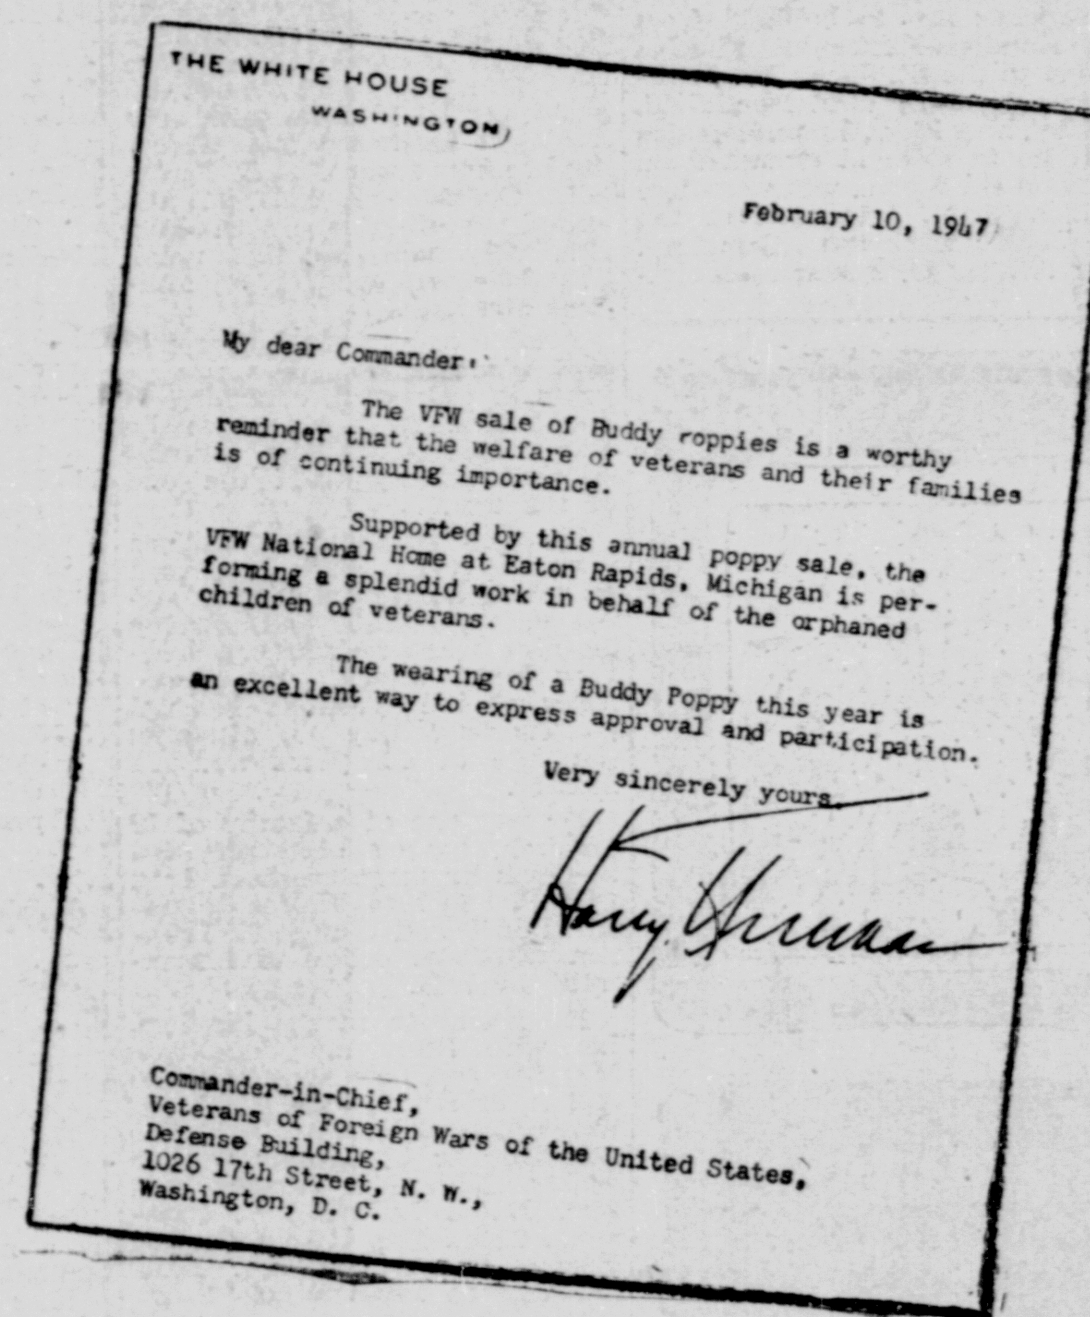

- (1) The relief of disabled, needy veterans and their dependents.
- (2) Orphans of veterans in the V. F. W. National Home, Eaton Rapids, Michigan.
- (3) Rehabilitation services for veterans in their dealings with the Veterans Administration.
- (4) Hospitalization expenses of non-compensated veterans.
- (5) An emergency fund for use in the event of national disaster.

This year there are more living veterans of all

Wars than there were Buddy Poppies sold last year. Since V-E Day, over 14 million men of World War II have become veterans. There are also some 3 million veterans of World War I, Spanish-American War, and Civil War. You honor each and every one of these heroes when you wear a Buddy Poppy.

So America's traditional "Flower of Remembrance," the Buddy Poppy of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, is an accepted symbol of our loyalty to those who, emerging from the shadows, bravely face physical and economic handicaps.

Be fashionable, and patriotic, too. Wear a Buddy Poppy proudly. Your contribution for a Buddy Poppy will be a lasting, living tribute to our war wounded, their widows and their orphans,

TWO-CONFERENCE FROSH-SOPH MEET AT PALATINE WED.

NE-NW frosh-soph records

Table with 4 columns: Event, Name, School, Time. Rows include 100 yard dash (Law, Woodstock), 220 yard dash (Muehlfelt, Palatine), 440 yard dash (Corio, Leyden), 880 yard run (Quaranta, Leyden), 70 yard h. h. (Heiniger, Niles), 110 yard h. h. (Schimmel, Woodstock), Frosh Relay (Arl. Hts.), Soph Relay (Lake Forest), Shot (8 lb.) (Moley, L. Forest), Discus (Legel, Crys. L.), Pole Vault (Tippe, Crys. L.), High Jump (Kamps, Arlington), Broad Jump (Wollar, Barrington).

It is a busy week for quite a number of Northeast Conference track athletes. After competing in the annual meet Tuesday at Niles the cream of the track crop will travel to Champaign to compete in the state meet preliminaries Friday and finals on Saturday. Fourteen Northeast athletes qualified for the state meet, the best representation in the history of the league.

Niles relay team one of best in state

Niles tops the list with five men. Their relay team of Pask, Horton, Farr, and Permer won their event in the Evanston district in 1:31.9 and rank among the best in the state in district time even though run on a muddy track. Pask won the 100 and took second in the 220 to qualify for the state in both events. Farr ran a 52 second 440 for a second and Bryce tied with Mollar of Lake Forest for second in the 220 with 2:03.

Lake Forest qualified besides Mollar, their fine mile, Jameson, who won the mile in the remarkable time of 4:40.6, and Price who took a second in the high hurdles.

Berschet of Arlington wins discus throw

Libertyville's pair of fine shot putters, Schroeder and Black, finished one-two in their event at Evanston, both getting tosses over 48 feet. Arlington qualified Berschet who won the discus and Ryckema who ran the 440 in the qualifying time of 53.4 though finishing in a tie for sixth.

Clark wins both dashes in Riverside district

Leyden's great junior sprinter, Clark, won both the 100 and 220 at the Riverside meet in good time but not as good as the winning marks at Evanston. Clark will run both in the state finals Friday and Barnes qualified in the discus with a second place.

Niles third in Evanston meet

Leyden scored 21 1/3 points in the Riverside district. Niles had 30 2/10 for third place at Evanston while Lake Forest was sixth with 12 1/2. Libertyville eighth with 12, Antioch eighth with 7, Arlington, ninth with 6 and Palatine 10th with 1/5.

Dan Jones only N. W. conf. athlete to state meet

Dan Jones of Antioch was the only Northwest boy to go to the state. He qualified with a 11 ft. 1 inch pole vault effort for a second place. Jones also got fifth in the high hurdles. Mattson of Antioch took a fourth in the broad jump. Hank Spoo, Palatine discus thrower, and first place until the seventh and last round of throws when both Arlington and Maine boys beat him. Spoo had a mark of 131 feet 3 inches and was beaten out of second and a chance to go to Champaign by one and one-half inches. Werner of Palatine tied for fifth in the pole vault.

Oak Park favorite to win the state

Oak Park placed 19 boys in the Riverside district meet and ran up a 70 point total to win the favorite's role in the state meet this coming week end. Oak Park won six first places and seconds, all with good marks in spite of bad weather conditions. Oak Park is very strong in both hurdles, the shot, discus, high jump, and 880 yard relay. McDonald of Oak Park threw the discus 153 feet 11 inches and may be the state winner. Ray Hahnfeldt represents Beloit College, Ray Hahnfeldt, former Palatine track star, took a fourth in the javelin throw and a second in

Redwings host to LaRose Coals this Sunday

Although the weather was perfect Sunday afternoon for baseball a muddy field forced the Redwings to cancel their game with the McCook team. Next Sunday, using the over worked phrase weather permitting, the Redwings will meet the La Rose Coals of the Midwest League in Recreation Park.

Last year the La Rose club bowed to the Redwings 12-9 on July 4th and 7-6 later in the summer in the Midwest League Tourney. In both games the visitors in both were ahead until late in the game when Redwing rallies put the local club in the victory column.

Card golfers take second in district

The district slogan "play regardless of weather," surely held tight last Saturday as 60 downstate minded high school golfers teed off on the Highland Park country club course in the pouring rain in hopes of slushing through the water soaked fairways and produce a good enough score to qualify for the state meet.

There was a total of nine schools competing in the meet; however, McHenry and Crystal Lake did not qualify enough men to make up a team score. The host school, Highland Park, came out victor with a team total of 348. Arlington Heights followed them with a total of 357, while Waukegan was third with 360.

This truly was an "off" day for the Cards who would probably have taken the meet on any clear day. Two consistent 78 to 83 shooters on the Arlington squad, namely George Payne and Vernon Rasher, were really "cold" as they carded a 94 and a 91 respectively. Clark Robinson was the only man who shot his consistent game for the Cards, tallying an 86.

The four low men and they who made up the team were Robinson, McDonald and Haake, a JayVee man brought up for the tournament, who collected a 91. Don Dombroski of Niles was medalist of the tournament with a 78.

Twilight golfers warm up with weather man

The golfers of the Arlington Heights Twilight Golf League are starting to warm up to their game now that they are getting a break in the weather. Chuck Kleinfelder had the honor of shooting the first par game of the season last Friday, and also took low net with a score of 31. Art Martens shot low alternate net with a fine 34.

Plan Memorial Day bike race in Arlington

Memorial Day five mile bicycle race has been planned for local residents by the Arlington athletic association, with start of the race slated for 9:30 a.m. at Sieburg's drug store. Course will cover 5 miles, wit finish at the same spot.

Seeks games

Looking for baseball games with northern Cook county boys 14-18 years old is Jake Marino of Lake Zurich, coach of a Lake county squad. Jake is hoping to line up some contests for the summer season. A card to him in Lake Zurich will bring a prompt response.

Redwings host to LaRose Coals this Sunday

Although the weather was perfect Sunday afternoon for baseball a muddy field forced the Redwings to cancel their game with the McCook team. Next Sunday, using the over worked phrase weather permitting, the Redwings will meet the La Rose Coals of the Midwest League in Recreation Park.

Last year the La Rose club bowed to the Redwings 12-9 on July 4th and 7-6 later in the summer in the Midwest League Tourney. In both games the visitors in both were ahead until late in the game when Redwing rallies put the local club in the victory column.

Although the La Rose boys were plenty potent with the bat last year the manager claims the club is better this year and so the Redwings trio of hurlers, Schaefer, Lefty Ganshert, and Clark may have to use a complete assortment of their wares if the visitors are to be stopped.

Not to be over optimistic so early in the year, it does look as though the local team is better balanced and an improvement over the 1946 club, which was plenty good itself. The improvements include Simpson at first base. He is as good defensively as an first sacker in the league and a good hitter. Stroker, a new-comer, is being given the difficult assignment of taking care of right field. He is a youngster with great possibilities in the field and at bat. The right field spot is one of the most difficult positions to play because of the rough ground which makes ground balls bounce crazily and due to a lack of a dark back ground behind the batter which gives the outfielder a chance to start out after fly balls as soon as they are hit.

The left field spot is not settled and may be taken care of by two men depending whether a right or left handed pitcher is working for the opposition. If a right hander is performing, Rosek, a left side batter will get the call and when a leftie is hurling Verba Junior who hits from the right will be in the lineup.

The new faces give the Redwings more hitting strength through the whole line up and a better outfield defense. The mixture of new blood with the veterans will build the team into a solid unit that will battle on even terms with any visiting team.

Borg's no-hitter wins for Bisons

Bensenville high school baseball team initiated its home schedule Tuesday afternoon of this week when, led by Don Borg who pitched his first complete game of the year, they shut out Wauconda, 5-0. Borg allowed the Wauconda boys nary a hit.

Holstrom walked to start the game, and was followed across the plate by Mueller on Borg's hit. Robertson scored in the fourth frame, and Vulgar and Weber tallied in the sixth inning for the others.

In accomplishing his no-hit, no-run game, Borg sent 10 Wauconda boys down via the strikeout route. This victory enabled coach Meneguini's Bisons to keep pace with Northbrook in the tight battle for Northwest conference honors. The Vikings outpoized Grant, 2-1, while Barrington was nosing Ela 3-2.

Northbrook travels to Bensenville this Friday for deciding games in the conference race with a doubleheader a strong possibility.

NE baseball

Northeast conference baseball for 1947 has reached the end of the road, except for the Niles-Arlington fracas to be played after state district competition is over. Arlington journeyed to Niles Tuesday, May 6, only to have the game called because of rain when the score was tied.

Table with 2 columns: Team, W, L. Rows include Niles (7-0), Arlington (6-1), Leyden (4-4), Warren (1-7), Woodstock (1-7).

Girls' team of 1940 recalls memories

Many girls' teams represented Arlington Heights, Palatine, Itasca and other towns just prior to the war, and it is the hope of some that possibly a girls' league among the towns may be formed. Those interested either as a team or individuals are urged to contact R. W. Durnar, 25 E. Hattendorf ave., Roselle, phone 5411.

Bison track squad falls to York, Proviso

Bensenville high school's varsity trackmen took it on the chin twice last week, to the York reserves and Proviso frosh-sops. The Maywood boys beat the locals, 87-17, while the Elmhurst team headed coach John Trapp's charges, 76-42.

Pittman led the Bensenville team in the Proviso match with first in shot and discus, both of them new meet records. He threw the shot 49' 2" to beat the previous mark of 48' set by former Bison Kernals in 1944. Pittman tossed the discus 123' 11". Other scorers for Bensenville included Gaspar, Schultz and Hunt.

Fell to York

In the meet against the York reserves Gaspar led the locals with first in high and low hurdles, plus a third in the 100 yard dash. He ran the high in 1:16 and the lows in 1:30.

Pittman notched ten points for coach Trapp's boys, winning both weight events, the shot in 39' 6", and the discus in 120' 0". Hunt grabbed the other Bensenville blue ribbon with a nine foot pole vault.

Arlington trackers fall before Niles power, 78-41

by MELVIN PRELLBERG

Niles High put on a beautiful exhibition of track power last Wednesday noon and showed that they are the team to beat in the Northeast Conference track race when it snowed under the Arlington fleters in a dual meet 76-41 on its own grounds.

The Trojans power, as usual, came in the running events as they had a winner in every run including the hurdles and the 880 yard relay.

The Niles speedsters swept the 100 and the 220 as well as taking all 3 places in the pole vault.

The big disappointment of the day for Heights was in Bill Kleiner, a consistent 20 foot broad jumper, who had an "off" day as he failed to clear 19 ft.

6 in, the winning mark made by Siegel of Niles.

Marv Berschet, the locals big weight man, took both the shot and discus with winning marks. He put the shot 45 ft. 6 in. and tossed the discus 135 ft. a distance which would take him down state from the district.

Wetengel paced Niles to five points in the mile as he was clocked 4:45.3, one of the best miles times around this section. Pasek sped a fast 10 yards, being timed in :10.4 and then came back to cop the 220 in :23.2.

Farr ran a beautiful 440 as he crossed the line in :52.4.

Arlington will finish its scheduled season this week. After entering the district meet at Evanston, Coach C. W. Creamer will try to turn the tables and win the conference track crown

Bach's 3-run homer is Leyden game clincher

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

Gail Bach was the hero of the day for Arlington high last Friday when, with two outs and men on first and second in the last of the third he knocked Leyden's strategy right down the gutter by connecting for a four-jagger over the center fielder's head, scoring the game-clinching runs ahead of him, 3-1.

This was the second victory over Leyden for the Cards this year, having formerly mauled the Eagles at Franklin Park on May 1st, 8 to 1. It was also a very important victory, giving the Cards a chance to gain a share of the first place honors in the conference if they can down Niles in their remaining game to be held on an undecided date at Skokie.

The Arlington-Leyden contest was anybody's gall game in the first two innings as nobody scored. In the third, Leyden came up to bat and Newman and Bollig, the first two up, slammed out hits. Newman, however, was shortly afterwards forced at second, but Bollig reached third only to be halted there.

Bach's timely blow came in this half of the inning with Bob Wille on second and Al Stroker on 1st, after an intentional base on balls. The home run blow was well hit and Bach, a speedy man, reached home in plenty of time. This pushed Heights in front, 3-0.

The fourth and fifth went by scoreless. However, it looked like the Eagles might tally in the 5th when Blanchette hit a long ball to left with Newman on first, but Bill Robinson made a beautiful over the shoulder catch to end the threat.

Leyden did score in the sixth, however, when Graber, the first man up, slammed out a hit and came home on a fielder's choice by Miller.

Chuck Bracke held the Eagles in the seventh to come out on the top end of a 3 to 1 score.

One feature of the contest was that the Cards collected just half the number of hits that Leyden did but still won the game.

Thollander leads Bisons to 1-hit win over Bronchos

Bob Thollander pitched all the way Friday afternoon of last week to limit Barrington base ball nine to one hit, allowing just 23 men to face him. Only one man, Weber, hit safely against the Bisons.

Bensenville stepped off to an early lead in the second inning. Thollander reached third on an error after 1 out. Vulgar hit a two-bagger, scoring Thollander. Steffenson reached first on an error, and Mueller hit safely, scoring Vulgar. The side was then retired.

In the fifth frame coach Meneguini's boys copped three more runs. Mueller beat out a bunt, Robertson was safe on a fielder's choice, and Weber walked to load the bags. Jimmy Holstrum then singled, scoring Mueller and Robertson. After Keller went out, second to first, Borg walked, and when Thollander reached base on an error, Holstrum crossed the plate.

Next session Vulgar reached first on an error, Steffenson fanned, and erratic play put Mueller on base. Robertson then singled and Holstrum hit safely, pushing Vulgar and Mueller home.

Barrington's only hit came in the third inning when Weber scratched a single and went to second on a passed ball.

Meta Schlomann, Max Nisle exchange vows

Miss Meta Schlomann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlomann, Sr., of Arlington Hts., became the bride of Mr. Max Nisle of Des Plaines in a double ring, candlelight ceremony at the St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church last Saturday evening. The solemn vows of marriage were repeated after Rev. L. V. Stephan, who officiated at the ceremony. The congregation joined in the singing of two hymns accompanied by Ottomar Kolb at the organ.

Gowned in traditional white satin, Miss Schlomann entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her dress was fashioned with fitted bodice, having a sweetheart neckline, and long fitted sleeves, and a full skirt. She wore a full length veil, edged in lace, and held in place by a tiasa of orange blossoms. White roses, dropping satin streamers knotted with lilies-of-the-valley, made up the bridal bouquet.

Matron of honor for the bride was the groom's sister, Elsie Hogel. The three bridesmaids were Ruth Wikman, Evelyn Moellenkamp and Vera Folkman. All wore identically styled gowns of pink, orchid, blue, and green respectively. The dresses were fashioned with fitted bodices, having a ruffled square neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and full skirts.

Marian Gerschevske, Raymond Ravagnie wed

The wedding ceremony of Miss Marian Gerschevske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gerschevske, and Mr. Raymond Ravagnie, all of Schaumburg, was held Saturday, May 10, at St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church, at 7:00 o'clock. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Martin Behling. The church altar was decorated with potted flowers, palms and ferns.

Miss Gerschevske was attired in a gown of white brocade chiffon. She wore a finger tip veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations and calla lilies tied with a white bow and streamers. The bride and groom walked down the aisle together to the strains of the traditional wedding march.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Alice Gerschevske, and bridesmaids were Theodora Pohlman, friend of the bride, and Ruth Gerschevske, cousin of the bride. The chifon dresses they wore were green, orchid and yellow, respectively. Their bouquets were made up of carnations and snap dragons.

Serving the groom as best man was Howard Friese, friend of the groom, and as best men were Albert Blaschke and Donald Keisler. They all wore brown business suits.

Mrs. Gerschevske, mother of the bride, wore a pale blue dress with a corsage of pink carnations.

During the ceremony, Miss Viola Thies and Miss Dolores Friese sang, "Oh Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mr. George Schlie at the organ.

A reception was held at Elk Grove Inn for approximately 375 guests.

Married 57 years

Fifty-seven years of wedded life are being celebrated today, Thursday, by Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Rugen, 1819 Prairie ave., Glenview. Mr. Rugen is 83 years old and his wife celebrated her 80th birthday on April 8.

They are pioneers of Glenview, both having lived in that vicinity all their lives. Mr. Rugen for 17 years managed his father's 160 acre farm west of Glenview, most of which is now a part of the Glenview Naval Air Station, and later his own farm, the majority of which is now included in the Swain

Nelson Nursery.

A dinner at the home of the celebrants has been planned by their three daughters, Clara Mueller of Glenview, Edna Borchart of Northbrook, and Julia Fuhr of Morton Grove. Other members of the family include six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Rugen can still remember the installation of an acetylene tank, which provided lighting, the first of its kind in the neighborhood, and also a hot water heating plant, one of the few luxuries experienced at

The wedding of Miss Marilyn Conen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Conen of Elk Grove township and Mr. Richard Cousineau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cousineau of Chicago, was held Saturday, May 10, at St. Mary's church in Des Plaines, at 11:00 a. m. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Brodfeur, a nephew of the bride's father. The mass was sung by the school children of St. Mary's.

A gray pin stripe suit was worn by Mrs. Conen, while the groom's mother wore a gray flowered rayon dress. Both had corsages of white carnations.

At 12:30 a delicious breakfast was served to the guests at the bride's home, the meal being prepared by friends of the bride's mother. A reception was held later at the Constellation Masonic Temple Annex, 3910 N. Damen ave., Chicago.

Palatine frosh-sophs lead Barrington when rain 'ends it all'

Palatine's frosh-soph team had a substantial lead on Barrington's Frosh-Soph last Thursday night when rain washed out the remaining events in the meet. Palatine's frosh-soph boys having defeated Antioch and Bensenville have an undefeated standing in the Northwest Conference.

UE FOR REAL ESTATE

Alfonso Alfani has sued Robert L. Cautcher Jr. and wife in the superior court for failing to complete a real estate deal. He charges that on Dec. 5, 1943, they contracted to buy No. 6735 rose avenue, Des Plaines, for $7,800. They paid $1,400 earnest money but were unable to finance the balance by a FHA insured mortgage and could not get the money otherwise so he offered to accept installments of $60 a month on the balance. They failed to keep up payments on this basis. He asks a receiver to take charge of the property until the matter of the unpaid balance is settled by the court.

Local schools may send players to all star game

One of the largest Chicago baseball crowds of the season is expected to witness the biggest doubleheader of the year on Tuesday afternoon, July 1, at Comiskey Park.

On that afternoon, women and school children will be able to see a thrilling American League game between the White Sox and the Detroit Tigers and the spectacular all-star high school game at the mere cost of a 25-cent tax ticket.

For Tuesday, July 1, has been designated as "Ladies and School Children's Day." This unusual arrangement was made possible by the White Sox and Detroit baseball clubs and the Herald-American.

The White Sox-Tigers fray will go on at the regularly scheduled 1:30 p. m. time and the second annual classic between the Chicago High School All-Stars and the Suburban All-Stars will follow immediately.

Thirty-two thousand five hundred grandstand seats will be available to the women and school children of grammar school and high school age at the special 25-cent tax ticket rate.

Other than that concession, there are no changes in ticket prices. Reserved box seats are $1.80; grandstand, $1.25; and bleachers, 60c. Mail orders for box seats, by certified check or money order, should be made out to White Sox Baseball Club and sent to Comiskey Park, 35th at Shields ave., Chicago 9, Ill.

Women and school children seeking to avoid waiting in line the day of the twin bill can purchase their tax tickets at Comiskey Park any day during the week of June 23.

Make Tuesday, July 1, the family's day at Comiskey Park.

Midget auto races on Memorial Day

Midget auto racing will be introduced in the northwest area of Chicago for the first time when the midgets will provide thrills for outlying districts when on the afternoon of Memorial Day, May 30, in Hanson Stadium, Fullerton and Central avenues.

Trial races will start at 12:30 o'clock, followed by 5 elimination races. The sixth race will be a consolation race with eight entries. The finale will be 10 qualifiers who will go 25 laps in a hair-raising dash for the grand awards.

YOUR DENTAL I Q

Question: Will a set of artificial teeth last a lifetime or is a new plate necessary in case of gums shrinking, etc.? D. R. W.

Answer: Artificial teeth should not be regarded as ending all dental troubles; nor should dentures (plates) be expected to last indefinitely. They should be examined by the dentist at least every two or three years. If they no longer fit properly, they should be rebuilt or replaced. The use of denture adhesive powders and attempts to relined dentures at home are to be discouraged.

These make-shift measures give but temporary relief and cannot correct the causes of denture instability. Furthermore, they may be distinctly harmful. Loose dentures (plates) irritate the tissues, causing the gums to become sore. Prolonged irritation from an ill-fitting denture may be dangerous.

Question: How was dentistry done in the olden days before 1849?—I. T. J. C.

Answer: The beginning of dental art was the same as that of general medicine. Early Egyptian, Assyrian, Greek and Etruscan history record its crude but painstaking practice. Write to the American Dental Association for more complete information on this fascinating subject.

Park Ridge Manor subdivision asks Des Plaines water

A humorous angle to the city fathers' agreement to sell Des Plaines water to a subdivision south of Maine High school developed this week.

One of the most potent arguments given out by the council in justifying their sale of the water to this subdivision was that it should and in all probability would become annexed to Des Plaines at some future date.

This theoretical bubble just burst when the promoters of the development just announced the opening of the "Park Ridge Manor."

Evidently they believe that Park Ridge has more sales appeal than Des Plaines although they find it easier to get Des Plaines water.

New slogan might well be "Live in Park Ridge Manor and Drink Des Plaines Water."

Lombard's Lilacs Near Late Record Peak of Bloom

Developed to a fullness of size and color alike by a moist, retarded season, the tens of thousands of lilac blooms in Lombard's world famous Lilac park were expected to attain a rare perfection of display by this week end. Given fair weather, the exhibit should run beyond Memorial day for its latest recorded closing date.

Added to the 400 varieties of lilacs, in amazing scope of color, and a profuse display of tulips, the park this year offers an innovation in giant pansies. A new music amplifying system has been installed. To avoid the weekend crowds, many will tour the park on weekday evenings and double their pleasure by seeing the display both by daylight and under the fairy spell cast by an effective lighting system.

This year, Lombard will name a Lilac Queen, one of five finalists chosen in a village-wide photographic contest. Pictured here, the five will be available from time to time in the park to assist the constant stream of amateur photographers to add an artistic touch to their efforts. The Queen of Lilacs will not be named until the climax of the season. She will be either (left to right from top) Lora Standish, Charlotte Ries, Ommond Childs, Betty Bean or Helen Murphy.

There is a small admission fee to this public park during the lilac season to offset costs.

Youth is saved from death at Long Lake

Albert Busscher, 19, an employee of the Libertyville Independent-Register, was saved from drowning recently by the quick action of two friends. He resides in Long Lake and fell from a motor boat into the lake. He is recovering at his home.

The youth and Miss Betty Christensen, 19, also of Long Lake, were riding in lake waters in a power boat. Busscher reached to adjust the motor and fell from the boat.

Jack Wetzel, a friend of the couple heard Miss Christensen's call for help, and he rowed 75 yards from shore. Wetzel got a hold on Busscher and pulled him into the boat. Wetzel applied artificial respiration and when Busscher revived rowed to shore where artificial respiration methods were again applied.

Village threatens to block sidewalk

The sidewalk in front of the Lipofsky building at 141 Park avenue, Barrington, will be blocked completely to pedestrian traffic unless it is repaired to the satisfaction of village authorities. Village Clerk Harry Wewetzer wrote Mrs. Lipofsky on April 16, warning that a hole in the walk created a dangerous condition. The hole was not repaired, and on Friday the village barricaded the walk except for a ramp leading into the grocery store in the building. If repairs are not completed that ramp will be closed off.

Correct roasting of peanuts has more effect on the flavor of peanut butter than does the type or variety of peanut used.

Sunday drinking banned in Mt. Prospect

The inevitable happened at Mt. Prospect when the village board closed the saloons tight Sunday and every Sunday hereafter before accepting the license money due. It was like a crash out from the clear sky to many patrons and there was wailing and gnashing of teeth, but the big majority including the keepers are glad the question was settled in quick fashion and done with.

A number of our boys witnessed the plight and comical disappointment of early callers Sunday morning and one doubting Thomas still had hopes for the "better" for the evening hours. Confidence is expressed that there will be no chance for secret places as there are none suitable and would be all too easily detected in a small burg like Mt. Prospect. There is no doubt but what it will prove a benefit to the whole community in many ways.

Buy your shoes at home

A Palatine man was recently asked $8.50 for a pair of guaranteed tan leather shoes in a Chicago store. Do you want to pay such prices? If not, buy shoes now at a month's delay may cost you many dollars and the place to go is Schoppe Bros. They have just received several cases of spring and summer shoes that they can sell you from $3.50 to $5.

JUST AROUND the CORNER

Dear Jane:

The red squirrel, who has his nest high up in one of the old maples hasn't the tiniest idea what "softies" he's made of us.

For a long time we wondered why we had so many corn cobs (with nary a kernel on them) strewn around the front lawn. Then, one day, we chanced on the answer—this fat, enterprising squirrel came from the back of the house, and scurried unbelievably fast to the center of the front yard. How he managed to drag the large ear of corn, we can't imagine, but this he did, and still does, quite frequently. When he reaches the front yard, he sits on his haunches, holds the corn ear in his forepaws, nibbles away until he has had his fill, and hurries with what remains to his nest in the tree. We have watched him do this time after time. And at least twice a week someone must rake up the empty cobs.

We could, of course, dispose of this nuisance, but we can't bear the thought of not seeing this little creature running about so contentedly here at the farm.

Writing you about the red squirrel reminds me that I haven't mentioned the other animals for some time. You remember Mike, Edward's little pony, is wearing a bride tulle today for the first time. She is very tame,

Bad fire at Mt. Prospect

Mt. Prospect had its first fire scare Monday morning when at about 9:20 flames burst out of the basement window of A. F. Jahncke's general store and the fire spread so rapidly that it was beyond control by the time men and fighting apparatus arrived.

The building, a two story and basement, and entire stock of merchandise, also the household goods and clothing were a complete loss. By good fortune the wind was due east carrying flames and heat into open fields, otherwise several more buildings would have been doomed. Mr. Jahncke says he will rebuild his store here as soon as the insurance companies adjust the loss.

It is apparent that Mount Prospect fire protection is nil and will be so until an unlimited supply of water is available. It was impossible for the Improvement Association to tackle so large a proposition and even now that the village is incorporated the financing of a good water system would tax so small a village to the limit.

Palatine defeats Arlington in baseball

In the hardest fought game ever played in Palatine, Arlington Heights was defeated by Palatine by a score of 4 to 3 Sunday. The excitement before and after the game reminded a fan of the old days 20 years ago when Palatine occupied some place in the sport world. The past defeats that have been delivered to Palatine ball team this year only stirred to greater effort manager Bulien and his assistant Comfort.

The lads from the Heights thought that their pitcher, Vanderbush, was the only man who knows how to pitch and staked their hopes on him alone. Palatine took no advantage of her rivals, as with the exception of two players, the lineup was the same as had been used at three of the four previous games and the same players will probably play through-out the season.

Tales

of the STREET

BY I. C. HART

RAIN

As if there hadn't been enough rain during the last six weeks along had to come a regular flood Saturday night to make things a whole lot worse. The Saturday rain following the big shower of a few days earlier which in some areas was mixed with hail put the farms and gardens in such condition that it was days before any work could be done.

As one farmer said, "When we do get a chance to do a little extra work in the fields the land isn't really fit to work." Working under that sort of condition the farmers and truck growers and also the home gardeners are really up against it this year.

POOR PROSPECTS

When we'd about given up any hopes of having a garden this year because the ground was low and had been flooded so much of the time that real spring weather for a few days a couple of weeks ago did enable us to get a few seeds into the grounds. Then along came Saturday's flood washing everything out of the ground and flooding the place again.

That about ends it for this season, and we aren't the only disappointed ones about that garden. When we went out to look at it Sunday morning a couple of dejected looking rabbits were looking it over from one corner and off in another corner was our ground hog also much dejected because he could not see visions of any more of those big luscious tomatoes that he feasted on last year.

SULLY AND THE PARK

Frank Sullivan was receiving the plaudits of the downtown folks the other day and also a lot of advice as he chased a power lawn mower around honor roll park. Well, Sully was really doing a fine public spirit job even if he was demonstrating one of the machines he has for sale. He surely should be entitled to whatever advertising he got out of his performance as pay for doing a much needed public service.

HAY FEVER

Anyone who attended the last meeting of the village board and saw trustee Williams with eyes and nose red and watering might have wondered what had happened to Doc. Well, it's hay fever. Doc being susceptible to the early spring variety of the disease that is caused by the early blooming trees.

Doc says that when that hay fever hits him he at once sees visions of Texas, for he can get rid of it down there. Says the minute he hits the Texas plains he is ok, and he can breathe normally again.

We can sympathize with Doc for we have the brand that comes a little later when the June grass and timothy get to blooming and then we begin to long for Alabama like Doc does for Texas for once we hit the salt air of the gulf coast that hay fever disappears as if by magic.

If you see a couple of fellows disappear out of Palatine's loop one of these fine days you'll know that a couple of hay fever sufferers are on their way—Doc for the plains of Texas and yours truly for the shores of the gulf coast.

HIGH TAXES

We were interested in farm adviser Hughes' article on high taxes and the reasons why in last week's paper, but we have a feeling that in some respect Mr. Hughes missed the boat.

He speaks of people not being interested in the annual town meetings and the budgets passed at those meetings. In reality the taxes levied at those town meetings are a very small fraction of the tax dollar.

It's the budgets of the schools and the municipalities that take the big bite out of that tax dollar, especially the schools. And how many folks are ever interested in the budget hearings of the schoolboards.

We can recall going to two much meetings in the last year where we were the only person present outside of the school officials and those meetings passed budgets that make the budgets of town meetings look like stale peanuts. And how many people attend village and city council meetings and hear about those budgets and the reasons therefor.

If more people would attend school board and village board meetings and learn of the reasons in mounting costs of government, higher salaries, higher costs of everything, they would have some kind of an idea of why their tax bill was so high.

We have noticed that when they want more service from a school or a village that delegation will be at those meetings in force demanding those services. Well, more service means more expense and more expense means larger budgets and larger budgets mean higher tax bills.

As we have said before times are changing, the old days are gone forever and so also are the days of low taxes. Taxes are higher this year than ever before but this is only the beginning. Just as long as the dear old public demands the things from local government that they are demanding now in increasing volume just that long will we have high taxes.

We said a year ago that taxes were going up and we say now that they are going still higher—don't say we didn't warn you.

SPOKES IN A WHEEL

Many and sundry things are discussed over the coffee cups at those mid morning coffee sessions at the corner, but the other day Roy LaLonde popped a question that had everybody stumped. "How many spokes in a wheel?"

No one knew the answer, not even the guy who brought up the discussion so now the boys are all on the look out for a wheel with spokes so they can find out. Just maybe also it might depend upon the sort of a wheel we suppose.

Postwar English rationing puts U.S. citizens to shame for most grumbling

ENGLISH RATIONING

The average resident of England, two years after the end of the war is faced with food rationing much more stringent than that which faced Americans during the war. In place of bemoaning their fate they get so-licious from the sunshine, birds and flowers. At least one family does.

At the editor's request John Allen, Arlington Heights, has permitted to be passed on to our readers extracts from a letter received last week from his sister at Salisbury, England.

The letter is enlightening and puts to shame the grumbler in America, who has plenty to eat and wear but insists upon complaining about such things as taxes, rain, housing, high prices and the government in general.

Down House
"Wain-a-long" Road
Salisbury

This morning I phoned our Customs Excise for the information you asked for and he tells me there is no food duty at all. As much as the post office will accept can be sent absolutely free, so long as it is a gift. Apparently I cannot send you money for anything.

Our rations per person is 2 oz. lard, 2 oz. bacon, ½ lb. sugar, ¼ lb. meat. Every other week the butter and margarine are reversed. We get 32 points a month, 2 lbs. golden syrup takes 12 points; 1 lb. currants 12; sultanas, 8 biscuits 12 points a pound. Tin apricot or strawberry jam 2 pounds, 20 points. Salmon, spam or other tinned meats too many points to consider, so off the menu. Rice I have not seen in years. Nine bread units we get weekly and it takes 4 points for a large loaf and 9 for a three lb. bag of flour. When you can buy cake it is 2 units a lb.

We get 32 clothing coupons for varying times, 4, 5 or 6 months. Wool is 8-oz. one coupon (when you can get it) costume 18; stockings 3; blouse 6; nightdress 5, slip 4. I think knickers 3, and panties 2, brassiere 1. Of course I make all my things—it saves a coupon or two. Shoes are 7 points ladies, 9 for men. Men's suits require 26 points coat 11, trousers 8, overcoat 18, socks 2. We give 2 points for 1 yard of cotton or silk material 36 in. wide, rising according to width and 4½ for 1 yd. of woolen material. Can you wonder at the flourishing black market!

This week we had 6 eggs each—the first in years, mostly 1 is our allotment and many weeks not even those. Oranges and lemons come in more regularly, now, thank goodness. Our market gets flooded with grapes, pineapples, peaches but the prices are so exorbitant we rarely touch them. Carrots 30c lb., greens also and cauliflowers a river from the big lake the boys say they were literally piled up like cordwood on the "shelves" of the rapids in trying to get to stream. The season opened in a few days and the boys would have liked to stay and try their luck. In those rapids you could scoop them up in a pail, say the boys. Some of Rudy's relatives are promising to send him a box of fish in the near future and the crowd around Bill De Puc's office is looking forward to some real fish dinners when that happens.

It Happened Here

Yes, there was frost on three consecutive nights, roofs white and glistening and a wind right off the ice caps; but our Colorado correspondent writes, "Lilacs, blue and white are in bloom and so fragrant; they form a west wall for the house. Birds and flowers are here; nearly all the crops are in and peas, corn, tomatoes, beets, grain and hay are up. No rains but the ditch is full." In an irrigated country, the full ditch is the hope of the farmer. Maybe it's safer to depend on the weather. Then a correspondent from England wrote after speaking of the "austerities" of their life, "But in the garden there is a profusion of daffodils and tulips, the fruit trees are coming into bloom and the grass is so green." She underdressed "green" as though the very color or offset austerities. This happened in Rogers Park where, surprisingly, after the late election, garbage collections were made twice a week. On a day when the collectors came, the young man of the house happened to be in the garage and was amused to see one of the men take a sly nip from a bottle, but the foreman was not amused. "What are you doing?" he demanded, "Tryin' to give us garbage men a bad reputation in this community?"

—SAMUSER.

have been 80c each. $1.60 IPAPER TO LIBRARY pay for two which is enough for 4 people.

A house we always had our eye on not far from here—went for $20,000 last week. We did not know it was for sale until it was all done. We could get $12,000 for ours tomorrow and bought it for $2,800!

One bright spot. We have a new Morris 8, 4-door car. Alan got our old one in 1937 second hand for $140 and sold it last week for $1,200. Our new one won't cost us much more.

Don't be too depressed at this letter. We have never been so well in our lives and we have learned to be grateful for everything that comes our way. I don't ask you to send us anything, because apparently the custom official was most emphatic that it must be gifts, but should you feel you want to give an additional treat to any of us you will be able to see that however small anything extra is always appreciated and nothing is ever wasted. Silk stockings we have to pay $1.00 a pair in duty plus the purchase tax but we save coupons and money is of lesser account. We just can't use our money.

As regards myself, the things I value are always with me. The sunrise and the setting, the apple blossom, the flowers, birds, the family love, the shadows on the lawn, the view from my window and the sky. I am always busy, making clothes, knitting socks for my men, cardigans for myself.

Today's lunch will be 1 in. Irish casserole steak, 12 points, spinach from garden, extra onions, and carrots and doughboys and potatoes, rhubarb from garden and custard, maybe plate tart if I can find enough fat—if not then stewed, coffee. Not so bad, eh? Yesterday I queued for 3 hours and had a smoked haddock which we had with potatoes and the remains of a prune tart. Every day there is something to eat. Yesterday a friend of mine gave me ¼ lb. tea, sometimes a friend comes from the country and gives me eggs, etc.

When most need a thing it comes from somewhere, so can you wonder at the sense of well being which is always me and at the love which swells greater and greater and seems to envelop the whole world. I would take the universe in my arms if I could and soothe it and try to heal the festering sores which cover its surface.

You are probably acquainted with the fact that the University of Illinois library, for years, has collected newspapers printed in the state of Illinois. This collection of over 11,000 bound volumes is now the most extensive collection of its kind and represents an unequalled source for the study of our civilization during the last thirty years or more.

From the beginning the aim has been to have representative papers from each county, and in most cases the aim has been attained or at least approached.

In the case of Cook county, perhaps because there are so many communities and publications, we have never succeeded. Thus, I am writing to suggest you send one of your six papers published in the county so that it may be permanently collected and preserved in this fire-proof building. Perhaps the Cook County Herald would be the most suitable.

READING & WRITING

BY Robin McKown

When a man goes off to war, Society assumes that his wife is lonely and unhappy. But every so often there is an exception. Nancy Wilson Ross tells about one such in "The Left Hand Is A Dreamer."

NANCY WILSON ROSS

Fredericka Perry is a suburban matron in her early thirties. She has been married fourteen years and she has two children. Her husband, Christopher, who is also her cousin, is solid and dependable. Beneath the apparent tranquility of this family is boredom, and frustration. Fredericka thinks of herself as a failure—as a mother, a wife, and an artist. She blames herself, not realizing that her husband has built up her sense of inferiority.

But when Christopher goes away to join the Air Force, life mysteriously begins anew. She studies, she works, for the first time she has self-confidence. Eventually she has to make a very difficult decision regarding herself.

"The Left Hand Is A Dreamer," published a few months ago, is now firmly entrenched as a best-seller. It is recommended by the Book-of-the-Month Club.

Norman Anthony, in "What To Do Until The Psychiatrist Comes," professes to give advice for the Amateur Psychiatrist. He recommends a First Aid Kit to contain such items as rose-colored glasses, for those suffering from melancholia, a bottle of glue for those with split personalities, and a wooden mallet for those who have gone mad from reading the comic strips.

"Sing, Brat, Sing," by Rene Fulop-Miller, is a tragic-comic novel about a child prodigy. Four-year-old Kiki can sing like an angel when she wants to, and her box office receipts are terrific. But she will only sing when the adults humor all her whims, and they are endless. At her say-so, dignified Herr Marcus must feed her tea to the polar bear, and mother, father, agent and all sit under the table to eat their custard dessert. That's just the beginning of the punishment they take.

Forecast Is "Colder" On Storage Front; It Pays, Declare Farmers

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

"Mamma gets what mamma needs," said a mid-west home demonstration agent recently. Electric refrigerators and farm freezers still may be hard to "get," but judging from the demand and use for them, indications are that they are high on the list of electrical products which "mama needs." That she "gets" her share is shown by the thousands of them installed in electrified farm homes.

Being naturally thrifty, farm women are careful buyers. Before making a purchase, they normally place their needs first and their own personal desires, second. In considering proper refrigeration facilities, chances are that they are attracted primarily by the savings which such facilities can provide—savings in food as well as in time.

At an operational cost of only a few cents per day, food worth many times that amount remains fresh on the hottest day in a refrigerator. Regardless of the weather, the temperature in a refrigerator remains constant and under your control. A refrigerator also eliminates the time and steps required by farm women in their efforts to keep vegetables crisp and milk and cream sweet in the summer by storing such products in the basement, pantry or storm cellar. Time, being so important on the average farm, it cannot be wasted by prolonging household chores.

Then too, with an electric refrigerator, the "ice man" never tracks up the kitchen; "he" is the power supplier and his deliveries are made "by wire."

A farm freezer is not a substitute for a refrigerator. Rather, it is a per cold appliance for freezing vegetables, fruits, meat, etc., and a frozen "pantry" for their storage until used, weeks or months later. In using a freezer, it is wise economy to follow closely the instructions which the manufacturer has prepared for its use. Foods must be properly prepared, packaged and sealed before being placed in the freezer so that they will emerge as tender and unflavored as when they were put in. It is well to remember that good foods will stay good in the freezer, but that freezing will not improve the quality of poor or improperly processed foods.

For long-time storage of frozen foods (six months to a year) zero is a satisfactory temperature. A temperature of 10 degrees Fahrenheit is adequate for storage of two to three months, and 20 degrees for storage of one to two weeks. Exceptions are ice cream and frozen foods in syrup, which should not be stored, even for a comparatively short time, at a temperature higher than 10 degrees.

Milk cooling important in spring season

Tricky spring weather may lull dairymen into a false reasoning about milk-cooling.

During this season of the year it is not unusual to experience cool days that are followed by warm or often fairly hot days. During these warm periods failure to cool milk properly may result in a lower quality product. R. V. Hussong, University of Illinois dairy bacteriologist, reminds farmers and dairymen that it is of the utmost importance to cool milk to a temperature of 50 degrees or lower promptly after it is drawn, and that recommendation follows regardless of the season of the year.

He strongly advocates a year-round program of cooling milk as an important step to high quality. But don't forget the other stone in the foundation-sanitation. Milk produced is clean, sterile utensils just naturally has the advantage in the competition for fine quality dairy products.

Tests have shown that milk handled in clean, sterile utensils will have few bacteria per cubic centimeter, while milk handled under the same conditions in dirty utensils may have many thousands of bacteria per cubic centimeter. Bacteria cause milk and cream spoilage and such products will bring the producer a lower price.

To be properly cleaned and sterilized, it is important that dairy utensils be constructed of a smooth non-corrosive material. Rusty and badly dented equip-

Urge farmers to more safety to combat accident toll

Farming is the most dangerous major industry in the United States, safety specialists tell us. And reports of accidents by Illinois farm advisers seem to back up the statement. Here are some of the accidents they reported to W. D. Murphy, state supervisor of extension farm labor at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

These are all accidents occurring the week ending April 18 which either took place on the farm or involved farm people. Perhaps you know about some of them first-hand.

In Cass county a motor cycle accident involving farm people killed one person and injured another badly enough to make him lose 30 working days.

A train accident in Christian county killed one farmer, and in Johnson county another was killed while working in a rock quarry.

In Kane county one man was killed and another injured in an automobile accident.

Although those just mentioned aren't strictly farm accidents, they serve to remind us that farm people are subject to the same accident hazards as anyone else—and some more too. Here are some of the accidents that happened on farms that same week:

In Boone county a man was kicked by a horse and lost 14 man-days. A Champaign county man was injured while repairing a farm machine and lost three days. In Edwards county a farmer was injured while digging a well and lost one work-day.

In Grundy county a farmer who was grinding feed lost three fingers and will be laid up a total of 45 days. Jasper county reported two accidents that week—a foot cut with an axe and a shoulder broken while unloading corn, which cost 21 man-days of labor.

We sometimes get careless around farm animals. In Jersey county a man lost 110 days after being thrown from a horse. In Jo Daviess county a farmer had a narrow escape from a bull and lost three days.

LAW on the FARM

Farm Managers—The business of professional farm management has grown rapidly in Illinois, and questions are asked frequently about the legal status of farm managers.
Legally the farm manager is an agent of the owner who employs him. As such agent he has authority to make the owner liable on contracts executed in the regular course of the farm business. Farm managers are frequently given the following powers by owners:

1. To procure insurance on buildings and other farm property belonging to the owner and to pay the premiums.
2. To sell grain and livestock belonging to the owner.
3. To purchase seed, feed, fertilizer, livestock and materials to the extent necessary to meet the owner's obligation under the lease.
4. To plan and supervise the erection of buildings and improvements.
5. To employ skilled labor for building, painting, ditching, fence construction or other activities for which the landlord is responsible.
6. To pay the taxes on farm property.
7. To collect the rent and remit it to the owner.
8. To discharge and procure farm tenants.
9. To enforce the landlord's lien for rent.

10. To evict tenants who refuse to move after due notice.
11. To work with tenants in planning a crop, livestock and soil maintenance and improvement program for the farm.
Farm managers may, through negligence and neglect of duty, make their employers liable to other persons, as for example, by failure to have a dangerous well-top or a weak floor repaired, with resulting injury to persons who may come on the farm.
Farm tenants are entitled to deal with the farm manager in place of the owner, except insofar as they have been informed that the manager does not have the power to act for the owner. Before making payments to the manager of rent or other money due the owner, or before accepting a lease signed by a manager, it is well for a tenant to inquire as to the authority of the manager.

There are no specific state laws on farm managers but the general laws of agency apply.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL
Dorothy Dix writes in her column of the failure of a mother to realize that her daughter, fourteen, is no longer a baby, while the daughter considers her mother a doddery old fogey at the age of thirty-two.
She is expressing here a never ending conflict between mother and daughter, father and son. Samuel Johnson says that there must always be a struggle between father and son "while one seeks for power, and the other for independence."
The parent who expects blind obedience from his or her child is going to be sadly disillusioned when that child reaches the adolescent stage. Perhaps the most compelling urge in a child during that stage is the urge for independence. They speak of their pride being hurt. They talk loudly, are often boisterous in order to call attention to their approaching manhood or womanhood. The less successful they are in gaining attention from others, the more impatient or moody they become—depending on their feelings at the moment.

Not every adolescent parent relationship is so tumultuous however. I know fathers living on my district who are very close to their sons, and sons who love and respect their fathers deeply. I know mothers and daughters who get along splendidly. Why?
It is because they have tried to understand one another. Mother has studied other boys and girls, has read books on adolescent psychology, and attended lectures on child care, has looked back into her own life, and tried to recall her own feelings during the tender age. Has learned to say "Don't you think it best?" instead of "you do this," or "don't do that." Has learned to think before she speaks, to be reasonable rather than emotional.

The father who takes time out to talk things over with his son, and who takes an active interest in his boy's hobbies and problems will be rewarded by a comradeship warm and satisfying. Instead of being a mere symbol of law about the house, he becomes a pal and counselor who can be trusted with confidences and problems of which otherwise he would have had no knowledge.
Imagination and understanding is what every adolescent child seeks in his parent. Too often the parent, burdened in his every day living by the necessity of long hours, is too tired or too busy to be a good parent. For his child's sake, however, he must find time to develop these two points. The future of his children are at stake.

Delay in building of superhighways costs lives, money and time

It is costing at least 289 lives, 12,214 injuries, and $28,254,420 annually because superhighways are not yet built in Cook county. These figures were compiled by safety engineers under the direction of William N. Erickson, president of the Cook county board, for presentation May 20 to the Cook county safety conference meeting at the Northwest Armory, 1551 N. Kedzie avenue.
The savings in lives and money were estimated by expert traffic engineers who figured that 40 per cent of the deaths, and injuries which occurred in 1946 would have been eliminated by construction and usage of a superhighway system.
In estimating the amount of money in time that is wasted daily, the engineers considered two factors, the riders' time lost by reduction in speed and the loss due to automobile "operation while delayed."
An average speed of 25 miles per hour was assumed for present city travel compared to 50 miles per hour for superhighway use.
In computing the economic loss due to time lost, the engineer adopted $1.20 per hour as a very conservative figure, since common labor today is over one dollar per hour.

Teen age race of cars ends in arrest

"If you want to use our streets for a race track, you're going to have to pay for it," was the advice of Judge Sengstock to Eleanor Kruger, 20 years old of Arlington Heights and Carl Whitney, 16, of Whitecomb avenue, Des Plaines, after being arrested there early one morning last week. After throwing the squad car into its highest gear, the police managed to catch both cars which were clocked at 60 miles per hour before the actual chase began.
The final result in court was a fine of $15 dollars against Whitney and $10 for Miss Kruger.

Farm safety

a week of farm labor.
A Saline county farmer was splitting fence posts and had his leg badly cut by the wedge. It cost him six work-days.
In Tazewell county an injury while repairing a tractor lost a farm man an even two weeks of labor.
That's the story—25 accidents to Illinois farm people in just one week, with four people killed and 350 days—nearly a year—lost by those lucky enough to escape with injuries. And looking over the list, it seems as if we could prevent similar accidents by taking just a little extra care and avoiding short-cuts.

One farmer says his quarter mile road has been forgotten

The troubles of a resident on an isolated township road surrounded by county roads were related to the county board last week in a letter from Edward J. Meelbusch, of Northbrook, owner of farming property on Winklemans road 500 feet west of Sanders road, Northfield township.

"This road runs one-quarter mile, from Milwaukee avenue to Sanders road," said the letter. "Due to the great distance to bring road machinery from Northfield, its being sadly neglected by the township road commissioner. For the past two years we have been without snow plows, making it impossible to get out either on Milwaukee or Sanders. Moreover, when the county plows them it leaves high bumps across Winklemans road, making it impossible either to enter or cut through on to county highways. The drainage is sadly neglected due to growth in the ditches. Right now the road is full of deep chuck holes. Can't it be changed from a township to a county road, please?"

JUST DOGS

by BOB TERRILL

New Puppies
With the demand for purebred dogs so great, men who are familiar with dogs have noticed that many a new dog owner has been hood-winked into obtaining a dog which does not measure up to the breed's own standard. In most all of the cases the things that are wrong with the pup are things which the seller should have taken care of before giving the dog to the new owner.

One example of this was a dog recently noticed by the dog editor, a dog which is purebred, but unfortunately has been sold with a tail which should have been docked to the correct length for this breed.

In this case the new owner does not realize that when his dog is fully grown he will be somewhat of a freak among the breed, and although the owner can have the tail docked to the correct length, this is something which a reputable dog breeder would have done before selling the dog. In itself the dog's tail being either long or short will certainly not cause any great calamity, and perhaps the dog would like more to wag anyway, however, for a person to pay a good price for a pup and then get one which does not measure up to what the dog looks like in the eye of the average man-on-the-street is a waste of money.

As perhaps a moral to the story, you prospective dog owners, read something about the breed of dog you intend to buy especially if it will be a purebred and make sure that you buy a dog which is at least up to basic standards.

Feeding
The age old question has been brought to the attention of your editor a lot these days, namely, "How much, and how often should I feed my dog?"

In short, what with so many dog foods now on the market, it is usually wise to follow the directions of the manufacturer of the food you buy, and remembering this one important point. With grown dogs it is best to have them perhaps just a little on the lean side rather than too heavy; feeding a puppy is of course a different matter, but many people make the mistake of feeding their dogs too much and too often. It's wise to remember that perhaps the hardest working dogs in the world, namely sled dogs, are fed on the average about 1 1/2 pounds of meat per day, and all at one time.

Dog Facts
Just one, or two notes for those who are dog minded, the next all-breed dog show of any size in this area will be the Tenth Annual Show given by the Skokie Valley Kennel Club, on June 22nd, at the "White House," Irving Park Blv. and River Road.

Also the dates for National Dog Week this year have been set as September 21, through the 27th.

Navy Pier students
Over 94 per cent of the 4,038 freshmen and sophomore students enrolled at the University of Illinois' Chicago Undergraduate Division at Navy Pier are Cook County residents, according to a survey made one month after the start of classes. Over 61 per cent — 2,839 students — are veterans, the survey showed.

Enrollment at the Chicago Undergraduate Division jumped from 3,846 for the first semester to 4,038 for the spring semester which began March 17. The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences registered the largest number of students—1,712. The College of Engineering (which includes Architecture) ranks second with 1,467 students, and the College of Commerce, third, with 849 enrolled.

The total number of women students enrolled increased from 443 to 519 for the spring semester. The number of married students more than doubled, with 518 married students enrolled as compared with the first semester's enrollment of 256.

Questions on GI bill

This is another in a series of questions and answers regarding the rights of returning servicemen and their families, as answered by the Veterans Division, Illinois State Employment Service at 5306 W. Lawrence avenue. Further information may be obtained by contacting this office.

Question: If I am attending school full time and drawing subsistence allowance, would my allowance be discontinued if I took a job on the side?
Answer: No. Under Public Law 346, if you are single, you can take a job paying up to $110.00 a month and still draw the maximum of $65 a month subsistence allowance. If you are married, you can earn up to $110.00 a month and still draw the maximum $90. This meets the ceiling income figure, as established by law, of not more than $175.00 a month (total earnings and subsistence allowance) for single students and $200 for married students.

Question: I am a recently retired army officer, receiving retirement pay. Does that prevent me from filing for readjustment allowance under the G. I. Bill?
Answer: No. So long as you are ready, willing and able to accept suitable work. You are also required to seek work on your own initiative. (Ref: Interpretive Service letter no. 20, V.A.)

Question: I have been going to college under the G. I. Bill for the last year, but I am going to quit and go to work for a while. However I do want to continue my education at some time in the future. How long do I have to take advantage of the educational benefits under the G. I. Bill?

Answer: Inasmuch as you have already applied for educational benefits under the G. I. Bill, you have up to nine years after the end of the war to complete your education. However, you must apply for educational benefits within four years after the war, or after date of discharge — whichever is later.

Question: How long a period of continued and unexplained ab-

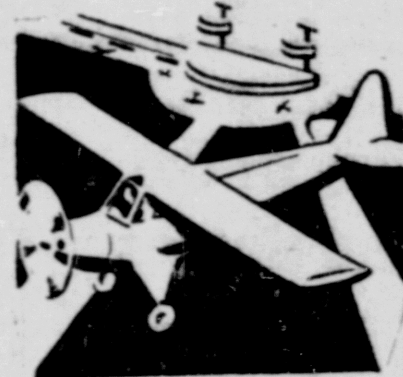

Naval candidates

Congressman Ralph E. Church of Illinois announced that he has just received from the Navy Department, Bureau of Naval Personnel, Washington, D. C., the official list of candidates selected for the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps and the Naval Aviation College Program for 1947.

The program is scheduled to begin in the Fall of 1947 and the boys were given their choice of ten universities in accordance with their rating.

The list of the 17 selections from the 10th Congressional district includes: Cedric Charles Gifford, Voltz rd., Northbrook; Benjamin Zeb Miller, 2049 Illinois, Northbrook; Melvin Norman A. Peterson, 1037 Hillside rd., Northbrook.

Seek rezoning

For the second time the Zoning Board of Appeals will hold a public hearing on the petition of Eleanor Schiessle who is seeking rezoning of property located about 500 feet north and west of the intersection of River Road and Higgins road in Leyden Township.

She is asking that the property be rezoned from a farming district to a business district. The hearing will be held May 23, 1947 in the Schiller Park Village Hall, Schiller Park, at 5 p. m.

The board will hold four other public hearings May 23 on rezoning applications covering property in the north suburban area.

GOOD IDEA
An old penal code of China provided that a man could obtain a divorce if his wife was too talkative, or if she disregarded his parents, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica. He could also obtain a divorce, the code held, if his wife had an envious or suspicious temper.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

1. How should the knife and fork be placed on the plate when not in use?
2. Is it the woman's place to tell the head waiter where she would like to sit when having dinner with a man in a hotel?
3. How much space should be left for the left-hand margin of a social letter?
4. Is it proper for parents to send out announcements and invitations when their daughter, who is a divorced woman, or a widow, remarries?
5. How should a mother introduce her daughter to a very distinguished elderly man?
6. Should one apologize if it is necessary to turn his back to - another person?

7. Is it proper to fold napkins for the dinner table into fancy shapes?
8. Shouldn't a hostess have something to read in the guest room?
9. Should a small boy who is a ring bearer at a wedding wear a boutonniere in the buttonhole of his jacket?
10. Should word be sent to the hotel to hold the room that has been reserved if one finds he is unexpectedly delayed and cannot arrive on the day stated in his reservation?
11. What are the two most important rules to follow in conversation?
12. Is it proper to write a letter of application on personal stationery?

ANSWERS

1. Place the knife midway between the outer edge and the center of the plate, cutting edge in. Lay the fork parallel to it, further toward the center.
2. No; leave it to the man to tell the waiter.
3. The proper margin is largely determined by the size of the letter paper.
4. Yes.
5. "Mr. Harris, my daughter, Jane."
6. Yes, always.
7. No; the correct shapes for the dinner table are either the perfect square or the oblong, although the triangle may be used for breakfast and luncheon.
8. Yes; a few late magazines, and perhaps a short, light novel.
9. No.
10. Yes, because hotels do not hold the room if you are not there to claim it within a reasonable time after you have stated you would be there.
11. Refrain from asking personal questions, and be attentive to the person who is talking.
12. No; a letter of this kind should be written on business stationery.

Social security help

Applicants for social security numbers may secure help in completing the necessary forms by contacting the Evanston Social Security field office representative May 27 in Room 6 of the Des Plaines post office, Miss Ellen McGuire, Evanston manager, advises.

Claims for Old-Age and Survivors Insurance and general inquiries about the Federal Social Security system are also handled by the Evanston representative as a regular service for residents of this area on her visits to Des Plaines the second and fourth Tuesday of every month.

THINGS TO COME — Magnetic wire recorders for dictating machines, all in a package no bigger than a table radio. A new fibre glass eraser that looks like a mechanical pencil designed for use with shaving cream or lather. For housewives, a kitchen clock that looks like a pan, but is both clock and radio, so that you can cook and weep over your favorite soap opera, all at the same time. All kinds of Weeks: National Cotton Week, Wear a Tie Week and a Bond-A-Month campaign. A new fire extinguisher, especially for autos, guaranteed to stop fires in seat cushions, blankets, paper and the like. A waterless hand cleaner, similar to a cream, kind to ladies' hands and thoughtful enough not to remove nail polish. And for fishermen, a new rubberized smock that sheds water like a duck's back, or so they claim. A simple wooden picture frame with roller attachment that you can operate window shade style, and change the picture in your wall six times.

Your weekly treat recipe

Here's a dessert with a tremendous eye appeal—a grand finale to a perfect meal. This pineapple ice box pudding is new. I know that you will try it too.

Pineapple Ice Box Pudding
1/4 lb. butter, 1 cup powdered sugar, 2 eggs, 1 cup grade pineapple, 1/2 lb. vanilla wafers, whipping cream (optional).
Method: Cream butter and sugar together. Beat eggs and add to above mixture—add pineapple. Line a shallow dish with vanilla wafers—then put a layer of pineapple mixture—then a layer of wafers—and so on ending with the pineapple mixture on top. Chill for 6 hours. Serve topped with whipped cream.

Gems of thought

REDEEMING TIME
What is meant by redeeming time? It is to fill the hours of the rightest freight, to fill them with the life of thought, feeling, action, as they pass. —Clarke.

To worry about tomorrow is to fail of devotion to the tasks of today, and so to spoil both days. —William Dewitt Hyde.

No man can be provident of his time who is not prudent in the choice of his company. —Jeremy Taylor.

Very few people are good economists of their fortune, and still fewer of their time. —Chesterfield.

A great amount of time is consumed in talking nothing, doing nothing, and indecision as to what one should do. —Mary Baker Eddy.
